Person 1: Hai.

Person 2: Hello. So, have you been in other countries?

Person 1: No, not even crossed South India.

Person 2: Ah, that's funny. So today's topic might be interesting. Do you want to be any character or you traveling to another universe?

Person 1: (smiling) Yes, I want to travel.

Person 2: So how and where?

Person 1: Hmm, I don't know. We might have heaven, hell, rebirth, or nothing after death, but I feel we might go to a different dimension, or even be stuck on Earth as a ghost.

Person 2: Ah, I think you've seen a lot of illusion movies; they've had an impact on you, right?

Person 1: (laughing) Might be.

Person 2: So, which do you prefer: being a ghost on Earth or traveling to a new universe?

Person 1: Obviously, traveling to a new world, whatever it may be. Let this Earth take what it gave (the body).

Person 2: Interesting!

Person 1: You know, people fear death, find it disgusting when others end their lives. But we should agree that somehow, we're all going to die. After that, we might, "We might," have something surprising, right? Or we might end up with nothing.

Person 2: I think you're insane. (laughs)

Person 1: Might be, but everyone is going to experience what comes next in life. So why worry or fear death? I think after death is a place we all travel to as the "Unknown Universe."
